Who we are...

We are your hometown newsroom, rooted in Regina and committed to delivering trusted, high-quality local journalism. From city council and local schools to neighbourhood events and community milestones, we tell the stories that reflect everyday life across Saskatchewan's capital.

Community is at the heart of what we do. We spotlight the people, organizations, and businesses that shape Regina, connect residents with the services they rely on, and deliver practical, reader-first coverage that informs and strengthens our community.

As part of Postmedia, we combine hometown credibility with national strength. That means your message benefits from brand-safe environments, deep audience insights, and media innovation delivered at scale.
