Who we are...

We are your hometown newsroom, rooted in Melfort and serving communities across the surrounding region with trusted, high-quality local journalism. From town council meetings and classrooms to community events, local fundraisers, and small-town celebrations, we cover the stories that shape everyday life across our area.

Local support is at the heart of what we do. We shine a spotlight on the people, organizations, and small businesses that keep Melfort and neighbouring communities strong, connect residents with the services they rely on, and deliver practical, reader-focused coverage that helps turn ideas into action.

As part of Postmedia, we combine hometown credibility with national strength. That means your message benefits from brand-safe environments, deep audience insights, and media innovation delivered at scale.
