Who we are...

We are your hometown newsroom, rooted in Picton and dedicated to serving Picton and Prince Edward County with trusted, high-quality local journalism. From town council meetings and local classrooms to community events, live music, and ribbon cuttings, we tell the stories that shape everyday life across our county.

Local support is at the core of what we do. We shine a light on the people, organizations, and small businesses that make Picton thrive, connect residents with the services they depend on, and provide practical, reader-focused coverage that helps turn ideas into action.

As part of Postmedia, we combine hometown credibility with national strength. That means your message benefits from brand-safe environments, deep audience insights, and media innovation delivered at scale.
